How concerned are you about the impact COVID-19 (coronavirus) may have on your pursuit of a graduate business education in the future?

- 15% Not at all concerned
- 21% Slightly concerned
- 25% Moderately concerned
- 23% Very concerned
- 16% Extremely concerned

Delays and Adjustments

- 47% Delaying pursuit of a graduate business education
- 25% Applying to schools/universities in a different geographic area than I was originally planning
- 24% Applying to other schools/universities that have more flexible admissions requirements
- 12% Applying to programs delivered online vs. in-person
- 7% No longer pursuing a graduate business education

Delay Timeframe (among those considering delaying GME)

- 6 months or less: 19%
- 7-12 months: 43%
- More than a year: 17%
- Not sure: 20%

Mba.com Prospective Students Survey between March 4-May 31, 2020

For more information, please visit www.gmac.com/research.

©2020 Graduate Management Admission Council™ (GMAC™). All rights reserved.