

Global: Graduate Management Programs Experience a Surge in Applications

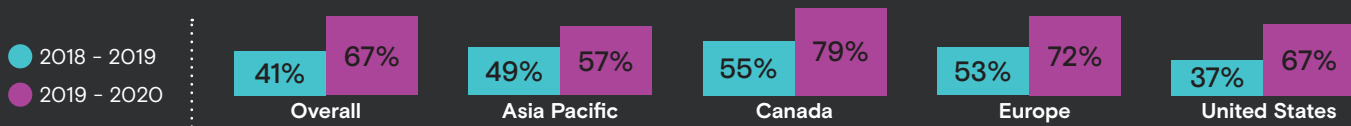

Overall, applications are up by 2.4 percent on weighted absolute basis for 731 programs worldwide responding to both 2019 and 2020 surveys.

Overall, 67 percent of 1,042 programs worldwide responding to the 2020 survey report an relative increase in application volumes.

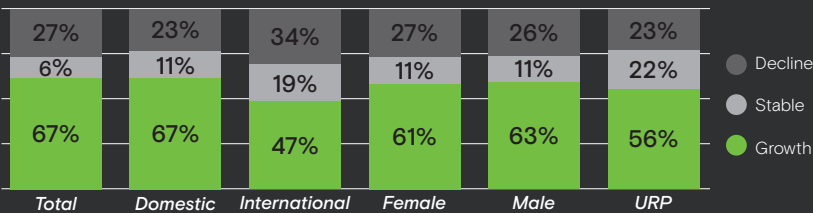

Global: Increase in Proportion of Programs Reporting Growth

Percentage of Programs Reporting Growth in Applications: Relative Change in Total Applications by Region

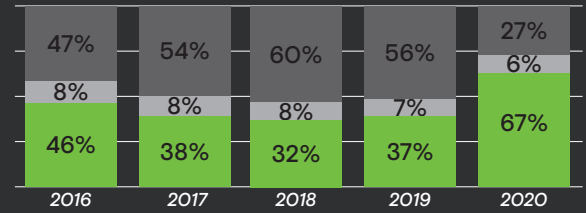

United States: Relative Year-on-Year Change in Total Applications

All Program Types by Demographics (2020)

All Program Types by Year, 2016-2020

Nearly 2 out of 3 programs in the US report growth in applications from domestic and international candidates.

Proportion of programs reporting growth in applications is higher in 2020 as compared to 2019.

United States: Impact of COVID-19 on B-Schools

Q. How has COVID-19 impacted the following areas of your program?

Recruitment

- 66% reduced travel budget
- 49% sought to recruit more domestic candidates

Admissions

- 61% allowed students to defer entry
- 59% extended application deadlines

Program

- 53% offered online start with in-person transition
- 25% started all students in the fall semester online